Re:

Further to our discussion this morning regarding the IDS filed with our Amendment mailed June 15, 2005, attached is a copy of the correct article that should have accompanied the aforementioned IDS. Regretably, the inventor with whom I have been dealing, Dr. Butkus, was at a conference on June 15 when the correct article was e-mailed to him. Otherwise, I would have sent this article, the correct one, with the IDS.

If any issues remain outstanding, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Herb,

According to my colleague, this is the correct article.

A translation of the title makes this look like the proper article.

Mike,

Try this article. Still not English, but my translation of the title seems to be correct. Let me know. Debbie
